PressFWD Vision

To work on projects in the moment. Non-profits typically collect funds to work on projects in the future while saving the money you donate in the interim to pay employees and create larger funding opportunities. We fund projects are turnkey and direct, so you can help immediately, and not eventually.

PressFWD a goal that started as a dream.

In a town where challenges cast long shadows, four friends united by their own struggles discovered a common dream. One had tasted homelessness, another sports limitations beyond school, a third battled artistic aspirations amidst financial constraints, and the fourth fought against a digital world that threatened their small business.

In their shared adversity, they found a purpose. They envisioned a world where no one would face the isolation they once knew. Their dream gave birth to PRESSFWD, a charity rising from their collective spirit.

PRESSFWD's mission? To transform trials into triumphs. They pooled their strength to raise funds, offering grants for the homeless, empowering athletes beyond classrooms, aiding artists in showcasing their talents, and bolstering small businesses in the face of the digital era.

Through PRESSFWD, they transformed their struggles into a force for good, proving that unity and compassion can rewrite the stories of countless lives. And so, their dream became a legacy of empowerment, lighting a path for others to press forward against life's storms.

PressFWD is an independent, grant & award-winning non-profit, inspiring breakthroughs in education, sports, and entrepreneurship.
